

2023 Strings & Jazzy Things Music Camp

Community Expectations and Standards

Please read these Community Expectations and Standards (note that the COVID-19 procedures are subject to changes in local, state, and federal health directives). Please sign the form and bring the signed copy on the first day of the camp.

Campers are expected to attend the entire camp experience (exceptions will be made for health-related absences). If you do not fulfill this expectation, you may not be able to attend any future camps. If possible, please do not schedule appointments during the camp.

COVID-19 Related Procedures

If warranted by current health directives at the local, state, and federal levels, we may conduct a quick health check (take temperature, ask about potential COVID exposure, etc.) before your child leaves your car – weather permitting. If raining, we will conduct this quick assessment in the registration area of the Stefan Music Center.

Medications and First Aid

- All medicines and foods brought to the camp must be checked in at Registration. The camp nurse will supervise administration of any medications.
- If you are injured, tell a camp instructor or staff member. Our on-site nurse or other adult trained in first aid will assist you.
- If a Camper is seriously injured or becomes unwell during the day, the parent/guardian of the Camper will be notified.

Cell Phones & Electronic Devices

No electronics communication devices are allowed at the camp. This included cell phones, tablets, etc. If Campers need to make a call, the S&JT staff will provide a phone. If Campers bring a cell phone, it must be checked at the registration desk and picked up at the end of the day. If a Camper is found having or using an electronic communication device, it will be confiscated, and a parent must retrieve it at a cost of $20. There will be no exceptions to this policy.

Conduct on Marian Campus

Campers must wear a name tag for your security and to help the staff know who you are.

Strings & Jazzy Things Music Camp are guests of the host facility. Campers are expected to take care of their own things and pick up after themselves. If you make a mess clean it up! Or get help to clean it up.

- No food or drink is allowed outside of the cafeteria or designated areas.
- Do not enter parts of the building or grounds other those designated for the camp's use.
- Campers, staff, and volunteers will treat each other with dignity and respect.
- Everyone is expected to act and behave appropriately.

This means:

- A. No running at any time in the building.
- B. No yelling or loud obnoxious behavior.

- C. No making fun of, picking on, hitting, pinching, poking, bullying, or taunting others.
- D. Leave other people's property alone.
- E. Obey the instructions of staff and volunteers.

Expected Behavior

You are a guest here. All Campers are subject to the discipline process is follows:

1. 1st incident reported to the camp administrator or camp director – Camper is made aware of the infraction, and it is kept on record. Camper may have a “time-out.”
2. 2nd incident, the camper will have a “time-out.” The parent will be made aware of a problem and advised that the next infraction of community standards will result in the camper being sent home and will be dismissed from the remainder of the camp.
3. 3rd incident will result in the camper being sent home and will be dismissed for the remainder of the camp. The camper may not be admitted to future camps.
4. Some inappropriate behaviors may constitute an immediate expulsion from the camp as determined by the camp director.
